Artillery Alone Active on West

(By Associated Press; PARIS, May 8. - Violent artillery fighting north and south of the Avre river on the front below Amiens is reported in today's official statement.

LONDON, May 18-Heavy artillery fighting last night between Givenchy and Robecq on the southern side of the Flanders salient is reported by the war office.

The first explosion occurred at noon and was so slight that no one was hurt and caused little damage, but it gave the employes warning and they hurried from the building.

Many of them, however, were caught in the next explosion which occurred a few mintues later and immediately the plant burst into flames

Three other explosions occurred each one scattering the burning debris. Some of it fell among the great crowe which had gathered on the neighboring hillsides and a number of persons were hurt, but none killed. Portions of the wrecked building fell on the Pan Handle railroad track and employes of the company hastened from Oakdale to Carnegie, six miles away, as the wires along the line had ben blown down by the explosion.

A wreck train was made up and went to the scene followed quickly by a relief train sent out by officers of the Aetna company. A detail of state police from the constabulary station near Oakdale was orderd to the place to control the crowd. The sheriff of Allegheny county sent a large force of deputies.

Several hundred white robed wom en gathered from Carnegie, Fort Pitt Renerdale, Walkers Mills and other villages near Oakdale where at the traction line station waiting for cars to carry them to Pittsburgh where they were to take part in the Red Cross parade this afternoon. At first sound of the explosion they abandoned the program for the parade and followed their leaders, taking up the march for Oakdale

For half an hour or more they could be seen strung out along the country road hastening to the stricken village and upon their arrival there they reported to the factory managers who able house for the family of pigeons had by this time reached the place from Carnegie. Many of them had tak naval base in the North Sea, was five en the full surgical course of the Red Cross and were valuable assistants.

The driver of a grocery wagon half a mile from the scene of the exploticularly urged to be present as there sion picked up one badly wounded workman and hurried with him to the nearest hospital.
